Flamingos: The trial flock of flamingos we brought to town was so well received they called in reinforcements! When most of the month they were going to be active was booked by the second day and the flocking requests kept coming in, we ordered two more flocks to help them out. They arrived Tuesday, April 23 and started appearing in yards that very day. All three flocks are booked for the year. If you know someone who wanted to flock someone, tell them to mark it on their calendars for next year. To paraphrase somebody or other, "They'll be back!"

Open House: Watch for an announcement of PHA's Upcoming Open House. Then come out and tour the current shelters and the site of the proposed new shelter.
